

Whistleblowing Policy

Nurture and Grow Childcare

Rationale:

Employees are often the first to realise that there may be something seriously wrong within the nursery. However, they may hesitate to express their concerns due to feelings of disloyalty to colleagues, the company, or other agencies, or fear of harassment or victimisation. In these circumstances, it may seem easier to ignore the concern rather than report what may just be a suspicion of malpractice.

Nurture and Grow Childcare is committed to the highest possible standards of openness, approachability, and accountability. We expect employees and others we deal with who have serious concerns about any aspect of the nursery to come forward and voice those concerns. It is recognised that most cases will have to proceed on a confidential basis.

This Whistleblowing Policy encourages and enables employees to raise concerns within the nursery rather than overlooking a problem or "blowing the whistle" outside.

Aims:

- Encourage confidence in raising concerns and to question and act upon concerns about practice.
- Provide avenues to raise those concerns and receive feedback on any action taken.
- Ensure responses to concerns and provide information on how to pursue them if dissatisfied.
- Reassure protection from reprisals or victimisation for disclosures made in the public interest.

The policy applies to all employees and those designated as casual, temporary, agency, authorised volunteers, Directors, contractors, and anyone working on the premises.

These procedures are in addition to the company's complaints procedures and other statutory reporting procedures.

Whistleblowing definition:

Whistleblowing is the term used when a worker passes on information concerning wrongdoing.

Legal framework

The Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998, commonly referred to as the ‘Whistleblowing Act’, amended the Employment Rights Act 1996 to provide protection for employees who raise legitimate concerns about specified matters. These are called ‘qualifying disclosures.’

A qualifying disclosure is one made in the public interest by an employee who has a reasonable belief that any of the following is being, has been, or is likely to be, committed:

- A criminal offence
- A miscarriage of justice
- An act creating risk to health and safety
- An act causing damage to the environment
- A breach of any other legal obligation or concealment of any of the above
- Any other unethical conduct
- An act that may be deemed as radicalised or a threat to national security.

Disclosures do not have to be made ‘in good faith’ but they must be made in the public interest. This is essential when assessing a disclosure made by an individual.

The Public Interest Disclosure Act has the following rules for making a protected disclosure:

- You must believe it to be substantially true
- You must not act maliciously or make false allegations
- You must not seek any personal gain.

It is not necessary for the employee to have proof that such an act is being, has been, or is likely to be, committed; a reasonable belief is sufficient.

Disclosure of information

If, in the course of your employment, you become aware of information which you reasonably believe indicates that a child is, or may be, or is likely to be, in risk of danger and/or one or more of the following may be happening, you MUST use the nursery’s disclosure procedure set out below:

- That a criminal offence has been committed or is being committed or is likely to be committed
- That a person has failed, is failing or is likely to fail to comply with any legal obligation to which they are subject (e.g. EYFS, Equalities Act 2010)
- That a miscarriage of justice has occurred, is occurring, or is likely to occur
- That the health or safety of any individual has been, is being, or is likely to be endangered

- That the environment, has been, is being, or is likely to be damaged
- That information tending to show any of the above, has been, is being, or is likely to be deliberately concealed.

Disclosure procedure

- If this information relates to child protection and safeguarding then the nursery's Safeguarding children and child protection policy should be followed, with particular reference to the staff and volunteering section. See below for the Whistleblowing safeguarding concerns flowchart
- Where you reasonably believe one or more of the above circumstances listed above has occurred, you should promptly disclose this to your manager so that any appropriate action can be taken. If it is inappropriate to make such a disclosure to your manager (i.e. because it relates to your manager) you should speak to The Directors Judy Cunningham or Tracey Doidge.
- Employees will suffer no detriment of any sort for making such a disclosure in accordance with this procedure. For further guidance in the use of the disclosure procedure, employees should speak in confidence to the *nursery manager/*owner
- Any disclosure or concerns raised will be treated seriously and will be dealt with in a consistent and confidential manner and will be followed through in a detailed and thorough manner
- Any employee who is involved in victimising employees who make a disclosure, takes any action to deter employees from disclosing information or makes malicious allegations in bad faith will be subject to potential disciplinary action which may result in dismissal
- Failure to report serious matters can also be investigated and potentially lead to disciplinary action which may result in dismissal
- Any management employee who inappropriately deals with a whistleblowing issue (e.g. failing to react appropriately by not taking action in a timely manner or disclosing confidential information) may be deemed to have engaged in gross misconduct which could lead to dismissal

How the Matter can be Taken Further

This policy provides an avenue within Nurture and Grow Childcare to raise concerns internally. If dissatisfied, external avenues include:

We give all of our staff the telephone numbers of the Local Authority Designated Officer (LADO), the local authority children's social care team and Ofsted so all staff may contact them if they cannot talk to anyone internally about the issues or concerns observed.
